Ms. Mays' Poem

I am from green and crisp lakes

I am go-go-go and sound support

I feel hopeful because I believe in the goodness

I wonder why roses are red and violets are blue

I remember playing cards in the gazebo, sipping Diet Pepsi

I fear that people cannot change

I hope that they can

I have been to Ant Island

I am the oldest, the caregiver

I love watching the seasons change

I dream of flying just under the ceiling of the world
